County Tax Collector R. G. Hardee, Sebastian, was in town the first of the week, attending to business before the board of county commissioners.

In this issue we have two petitions for a special tax. The First and Fifth commissioners' districts do not propose to drop behind the balance of the county.

R. G. Roberts and T. Maloy, of Vero, are visitors at the county seat the first part of this week, and while here had their names enrolled as subscribers to THE TRIBUNE.

Walter J. Bass, for years a resident of Fort Pierce, but lately of Jacksonville, has been spending a few days at home. It is reported that he contemplates locating there.

Col. "Ned" Summerlin, of St. Lucie, is among the visitors at Fort Pierce today. The colonel says THE TRIBUNE is the peoples' paper, and becoming more popular every day.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis R. Cureton, of Eden, spent the day last Friday at Fort Pierce visiting friends. They expect soon to leave here and go to Indian Territory to make their home.

O. C. Yates and family, who have been living in W. B. Cross' house in the western part of the town, have moved to the Bell house in the northern part of town, now owned by Mrs. Schroeder.

County Clerk J. E. Fultz spent Sunday with his family at Sprucebluff, returning here Monday. Mr. Fultz expects to move his family here about the first of the month and will occupy the T. Weaver house in the north end of town.

Mrs. C. A. Horton, of Melbourne, who has spent the past three or four months in Fort Pierce visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Jackson, and her sons, Messrs. C. M. Horton and F. R. Horton, returned to Melbourne last Saturday.

Messrs. George and Perry Saunders, who have been working in Eden for several months past, spent Sunday in Fort Pierce at the home of their parents, Capt. and Mrs. Geo. Saunders. The occasion was a reunion of the members of the Saunders family now in the state on the eve of the departure of Mrs. Campbell and children for Panama.

Allan Eldred, one of the solid citizens of Eldred, left here Wednesday night for his old home in Carrolton, Ill., for a several months visit. Mr. Eldred has ordered THE TRIBUNE sent to his northern address to keep him posted on the doings of St. Lucie county during his absence. He will return after the fall begins to fall.

Mr. C. R. Campbell and two young children left last Monday for their long trip to Panama. They boarded the Clyde steamer at Jacksonville for New York, then like another ocean trip back over almost the same route, passing along the Florida coast enroute to their destination. Their many friends regretted to see them leave, but extend their best wishes for success in their new home. Mr. Campbell has a splendid position in Panama as a railroad engineer. THE TRIBUNE follows, to keep them posted on St. Lucie county affairs.

Hon. C. F. Olmstead spent a few days in Miami the first of the week.

E. C. Walker, of Quay, was a visitor in Fort Pierce last Saturday and Sunday.

R. G. Roberts, of Vero, was at the county seat Tuesday transacting business.

Genial Al Ford has been busily engaged lately assisting in decorating Nesbitt's store.

Our stock increases daily, therefore we are in a better position to satisfy your wants than ever. Drug Store.

Faber Bros.' addition is progressing nicely. When completed it will be an imposing structure, and will make a first class hotel.

Clarence Summerlin is rebuilding the dock and raising the boat house on his river front property this week. Getting ready for the gale next month?

L. M. Dawson, head clerk in W. E. Goldsmith's grocery store, spent Wednesday in Titusville, seeing his old friends and attending to business.

Rev. E. T. R. Frupp, the Congregational minister who is located in White City, will preach in the Fort Pierce Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Mrs. C. M. Horton left Wednesday evening for Eldred, where she went to spend Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McCarty. She will return this morning.

John Beach, of Palm Beach, and Ernest Stypman, of Eau Eallie, members of the East Coast Fish company of Fort Pierce, were in town Saturday on business.

Misses Sybil and Theda Horton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Horton, left Wednesday for a few days visit with their grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Horton, at Melbourne.

Work on C. T. McCarty's residence on the bluff is progressing rapidly. The roof is now on and it will only be a short time before it is completed. It will be one of the nicest residences in town.

Mabel and June Summerlin, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Summerlin, are visiting with friends and relatives at Osteen and Deland. They expect to return home in about two weeks.

E. C. Summerlin and family of St. Lucie and T. D. Summerlin and family and Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Geiger, of Fort Pierce, picniced at the beach last Sunday. Bathing and shell hunting formed the chief amusement of the day.

Mrs. B. F. Hardesty, of Sebastian, wife of the member of the school board from the First district, who has been spending a few weeks in Fort Pierce in hopes of regaining her health, reports that she has already improved quite a little.

Fort Pierce is to be congratulated on the efficient manner in which Marshal Davis looks after the public interests. Few communities are better cared for by their authorized protector; and still fewer are in a more healthful or better sanitary condition.

R. L. Goodwin, the expert painter from down the river front, is at work on the renovating of Nesbitt's store. They are making a splendid job of it, and the captain will not know his building when he returns with that big stock of dry goods and shoes.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. W. Hogg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Paxton and children, enjoyed a launch ride to the beach one afternoon the first of the week. The weather was fine and the time was very pleasantly spent; a picnic supper and a moonlight ride home making the climax of a perfect day.

R. R. Ricou, Jensen's leading fish dealer, was a visitor in Fort Pierce Tuesday, and while in town called on THE TRIBUNE and left four subscriptions to be sent to his friends. Mr. Ricou thinks that THE TRIBUNE can truthfully represent affairs here, and wants his friends to know how we are progressing.

The Ladies' Improvement club is continually meeting with much success in selling the stock of the club, and we hope in a week or two to announce some definite plans. They are receiving responses from out of town, and in one instance at least have sold stock that is attributed to the publicity given the enterprise through the press.

Beach parties are becoming quite the thing among our townspeople nowadays. Last Sunday afternoon F. M. Tyler took a pleasant party composed of M. M. Hendrix, Miss Hendrix and little niece, Dr. and Mrs. Vanlandingham,

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mims and Caspar Mims, to the inlet. All report a pleasant time and pronounce the beach at that point one of the finest for surf bathing they have ever visited.

Try a good, sweet, cool Havana cigar at the Drug Store.

Mrs. John Miller, of Eden, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Maud, were visitors at Fort Pierce Saturday and Sunday. They came up to see Mrs. C. R. Campbell and children off on their long trip to Panama.

J. T. Waters, the census enumerator, has been spending the week in and near Fort Pierce. He expects to complete the town limits today, and surrounding section by tomorrow. We will soon know how much of a "city" we have.

St. Lucie County Commissioners P. Kroegel, Sebastian; K. B. Raulerson, Fort Pierce; J. F. Bell, White City; W. R. Hardee, Jensen, were in town the first of the week holding a special session to examine the tax assessor's books.

Miss Susie Hunter, one of the teachers in the Fort Pierce High school last year, was a passenger on Saturday's southbound train enroute to Delray, where she went to make arrangements to teach the local school the coming session.

Geo. F. Ensey, of Tropic, Merritts Island, was in town last Friday. Mr. Ensey was on his way to Miami, where he is arranging to commence the manufacture of a new explosive which is claimed to be far more powerful than dynamite.

Sheriff Lennard reports that his wife and children, who are spending a couple of months at Talbotton, Ga., are greatly improving in health and are gaining weight rapidly; but "Bob" says that their stay is not conducive to his good health or comfort.

Arthur Jennings will return next week from Pennsylvania, where he has been spending his vacation. Mrs. Jennings will remain in the north until the last of September, when she will be accompanied on her return by her sister, Miss Sarah Best, of Pittson, Penn.

F. M. Brannan and family expect to leave here the first of next week and return to their old home in Arcadia. Mr. Brannan has had charge of K. B. Raulerson's meat market for the past year, and they have made many friends here who will regret to see them leave.

County Judge James E. Andrews made a trip to Sebastian Wednesday, returning the same day. Mr. Andrews is preparing to open an abstract office in the law office over the bank, and THE TRIBUNE job department has been busy this week printing the stationery that will be necessary to conduct the business.

A prominent citizen of the First commissioners' district, in looking over our subscription books, remarked that we had more subscribers in the district than there were registered voters. To be exact, there are 13 registered voters that are not on our list, while we have 17 who are not registered voters. Every one is a bona fide subscriber; and it is useless to say we are after those 13 tardy citizens.

Reginald Waters had the misfortune to fall from his bicycle while on his way home from a practice game of ball between the new Eden-Tibbals club, last Saturday, and severely sprained his wrist. For a time it was thought that the arm was broken, but it proved to be only sprained in the elbow joint, which however may be more serious than a break. He is getting along as well as could be expected, and no serious outcome is expected.

Crude Carbolic acid cures Mange. At Drug Store.

EDEN.

Mrs. Thomas E. Richards is making preparations to paint her house.

Mrs. John Richards of Stuart visited her daughter, Mrs. F. B. Richards, the latter part of last week.

Mrs. John Miller made a three days' visit to Fort Pierce to see her niece, Mrs. Campbell, off for Panama.

Miss Jessie Miller has been appointed to teach at Grant, in Brevard county. We hate to see her go 'way off into another county.

T. A. Bryson, who is attending school at Suwanee, Tenn., dislocated his arm last week. The injury, though painful, is not thought to be serious.

Miss Florence Robinson is still in Jacksonville with her sister, Mrs. Williams. She is enjoying her visit, but will be glad to be back home.

The county mowing machine is at work on the roads. When it gets here it will have plenty of work. The weeds are shoulder high in the roads.

Harry Richards, Jr., fell from the wind mill tower at his grandmother's and injured his wrist last week. It was thought at first to be broken, but now appears to be nothing worse than a bruise.

The weather this summer has been fine for one other thing besides weeds and mosquitos, and that is orange trees. All the trees hereabouts are looking fine and have made a wonderful growth this summer.

H. W. Richards and family surprised their relatives by a late arrival from Stuart last Friday evening. After spending Saturday visiting the different members of the family they returned home late in the afternoon.

Miss Mary Hamlin, who is well known on the sound, and who was so seriously injured at Miami by being run over by an automobile, we are glad to say is now able to sit up and read and write a little. We hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

The latest reports received from Milford, Conn., stated that D. P. Merwin was making satisfactory progress toward recovery. He was sitting up in a wheel chair and expected soon to go into the country. This is good news to his many friends here.

The first meeting of the Eden-Tibbals baseball club was productive of disasters. Jack Russell, who is so "sporty," must wear a ring, and by some means caught his thumb nail in it and pulled the nail completely off. Mr. Whitcomb got nothing worse than a severe headache, but Reginald Waters, while on his way home, fell from his wheel and dislocated his elbow and lacerated some of the tendons, making a very painful injury. We hope the boys will not be discouraged, but there are so few of them that at this rate there will not be enough in both settlements to get up a team.

WHITE CITY.

Peter Jensen left for Miami Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Campbell is reported on the sick list.

J. H. Campbell is putting new shingles on his house.

Rev. Frupp was a caller on Mr. Lamont Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Knudsen has purchased a nice spring wagon from Franklin Bro's.

Britton Jones' pleasant face was seen on our streets and in Sunday school last Sunday.

Our boys spent Saturday afternoon cleaning off a new baseball ground, the old ground having been destroyed by the cutting of a ditch through it.

Messrs. John Jensen and George Beck were out from Fort Pierce Sunday.

Messrs. Gustafsen and Frupp have taken a contract to clear a tract of land for Mr. Olesen of Chicago.

Friday evening a few of our young men met at the club room and organized an athletic club, the name of which is not settled.

The regular meeting of the Cemetery association will be held in the Club house Tuesday evening, September 5, and it is quite necessary for every member to be present.

We learn that some of our boys have been making night hideous and disturbing the rest of down town residents and if such conduct is continued there is likely to be trouble.

JENSEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kling are rejoicing in consequence of the arrival of a fine baby daughter.

Miss Sarah Starck has returned from a very pleasant visit with her former classmate, now living in Jacksonville.

Eugene Backus has suffered severely from acute rheumatism, but at present, we are pleased to learn, he is recovering from the painful disease.

The hot weather and frequent rains have been just what was needed for the pineapple fields. Old residents say they never saw a finer growth of plants than at present.

Dr. Lloyd, of Ft. Pierce, made some professional calls in Jensen during the week. During his short residence here last season he made many friends among our people.

Mr. R. E. Brand is in quite feeble health at present, although he is still able to be about town every day. We hope to see him gain strength as cooler weather approaches.

Sawmill men have canvassed this district for orders for shed material during the past few days. The freeze of last winter thoroughly tested the efficiency of good sheds.

The pine harvest having passed, several of our growers have gone on a vacation trip north. Among those who have left during the past week are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Harmer at Ashville, N. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brewer to the state of Maine.

The "Wayside Inn" has not closed this season, but is open to guests throughout the year. Mr. Stanley, the owner of the hotel is in New York at present; on his return, the hotel will be renovated and necessary improvements made. Mr. Stanley's nephew, Mr. Fairbanks, is in charge of the property.

Jensen is experiencing a severe case of baseball fever, or enthusiasm or whatever it may be called, not the ball team alone but the people as well. On Thursday afternoon when the team practices, every store in town closes, and all hands flock to the ball park to participate in the excitement. Such universal support naturally produces a good team, and one that is hard to beat. The Miami team will cross bats with us on Friday the 18th. May the best players win.

To Our Subscribers.

As the subscription price of all newspapers is based on the cash in advance plan, the proprietors of THE TRIBUNE will consider it as a personal favor, if all of our subscribers, who are not paid up will remit before September 1.
